Dear Fire Protection Service Corporation :

The Department of Criminal Justice Services has received your initial application for a Private Security Services Business License. Prior to issuance of the license, a state and national criminal history records search must be completed for all owners, officers, and/or directors of the applying business, as well as employment of an individual who has met all requirements for certification as a compliance agent.

This temporary license is issued for a 120-day period while awaiting completion of the aforementioned requirements.
