TRANSACTION PRIVILEGE SALES TAX: The City of Scottsdale imposes a 1.65% privilege sales tax. The business is legally responsible for payment of the tax, not the customer. The business is permitted to pass the tax through to and collect the tax from the customer. Any taxes so collected must be remitted to the taxing authority. The sale of tangible personal property (including but not limited to food, artwork, automobiles, furniture and equipment) to the final consumer or user is taxable even when sold at wholesale prices.

USE TAX: A 1.45% use tax is imposed on the purchaser for the privilege of using, consuming or storing tangible personal property within the City limits. The tax is not applicable if an equivalent excise tax has been levied and paid previously.

REPORTING OF TAX: A tax return will be mailed monthly, quarterly or annually depending on the business annual taxable gross income. New accounts are placed on monthly reporting for a six month period until a reporting history is established. You may request a change in reporting frequency once your reporting history has been established.

REPORTING FREQUENCY: A separate tax return must be filed for each reporting period and each location/name. Consolidated reporting is not allowed.

MONTHLY: Annual taxable gross income in excess of fifty thousand dollars ($50,000).

QUARTERLY: Annual taxable gross income in excess of five thousand dollars ($5,000). but less than fifty thousand dollars ($50,000).

ANNUAL: Annual taxable gross income of not more than five thousand dollars ($5,000)

Even if you have no income to report, you must mark the check boxes in the appropriate areas, then sign and submit your tax return. The submittal of income must be made on the appropriate form prescribed by the City.

TAX AUDIT: The business owner is responsible for reporting and remitting the appropriate City taxes. Your business may be selected for audit by the City. The audit generally covers the previous four (4) year period. The business owner would be responsible for payment of any additional taxes,
